A crime will take place in Harlow

Thursday 7th June 2007 to Saturday 9th June 2007.

I am writing to let you know that the greatest chiromancer in the World, the infallible Mr Podgers, has been asked by Lady Julia Merton to read the palm of Lord Arthur Savile. Not a week goes by without news of the infallible Mr Podgers discovering something embarrassing about one of his rich subjects' pasts, presents or futures. Mr Podgers extraordinary acts of divination are derived simply by him reading the palm of his subjects' hands. But what will he find in the hand of Lord Arthur Savile? Something embarrassing? Something life threatening? Something unavoidable? That is the plot of Global Theatre Company's latest play being brought to Harlow Playhouse Theatre each night at 7:45pm between Thursday 7th June 2007 to Saturday 9th June 2007.

"Lord Arthur Savile's Crime" is adapted from a short story by Oscar Wilde. It is thrilling, explosive and outrageously funny. There are hilarious performances from Richard Holliss as Lord Arthur Savile who is abetted in his crime by his Butler Baines played by Keith Cummings and David Millard as the infallible anarchist Herr Frederick Winkelkopf in a riotously funny play. Set in 1890, this play has a sparkling script and a cast of 10 colourful characters. This is a hilarious play for all the family.
